

majer

AMELIA Morrison has joined Majer Recruitment as temporary payroll administrator. Morrison comes from a manufacturing background and brings with her more than six years experience in the finance field and is furthering her skills by undertaking university studies in Accounting. Her energetic presence and dedication to her work is a welcome addition to the Majer offices. Looking after temporary pays, she will be available to answer questions and provide assistance to all Majer temps.

City News 2nd July 2007