

March 2007

A celebration well worth the party

Majer Recruitment can hold claim to being one of the most successful recruitment agencies Brisbane has seen, celebrating their 4th birthday on Friday 20th April, in award winning style.

In the last 4 years Majer Recruitment has won the title of runner-up twice and winner in 2006 of Australia's Favourite Recruiter by SEEK candidates throughout Australia, because of their incredible approach, professionalism and results driven attitude.

Initially with 2 staff and growing to 8 staff plus the 2 Majer dachshunds, Pepe and Hollie, this small business has successfully outrun larger firms hands down, building a strong presence in the marketplace.

Suzie Majer, Director of Majer Recruitment, is proud of the Brisbane team achievements and is dedicated to improving their popularity.

"Majer Recruitment is recognised as a market leader for innovation, individuality and personalised service," Ms Majer said working in an open plan warehouse in the valley.

"We work with some of the largest state and national companies and we will continue to make waves," she said.

Be sure to keep the Majer Recruitment team in mind this month for all your human resources needs and guaranteed success, success, success!

Yet another milestone will be celebrated at Majer this month, so contact Majer Recruitment- 129 Robertson Street, Fortitude Valley for all your recruitment needs.
