Major News: Majer Recruitment takes out national recruitment award

Its official – boutique Brisbane recruitment firm Majer Recruitment are Australia's favourite Generalist Small to Medium sized recruiter.

Competing against the nations top firms in the Seek Annual Recruitment Awards, Majer Recruitment was honoured to take the top spot in a gala awards ceremony in Sydney last night.

Director of Majer Recruitment, Suzie Majer, was ecstatic with the win after being named Runner-Up for the last two years.

"The award means a lot to us as it shows that our candidates are happy with our service, and that we are achieving our vision of building long term, meaningful relationships," Ms Majer said.

"Our down to earth attitude towards candidates and clients is surprisingly unique in our industry and has earned us an unsurpassed reputation in the marketplace," Ms Majer said.

Ms Majer founded Majer Recruitment in 2003 after recognising the need for a firm that offers both candidates and clients a more personalised service. Through this point of difference, Majer Recruitment has firmly established itself as a major player in the industry.

Penny Wilson was a recent candidate at Majer Recruitment, and was so impressed with their service that she immediately voted for them in the Seek Awards.

"I found Majer Recruitment to be a definite cut above the rest in terms of professionalism, dedication, efficiency and manner," Ms Wilson said.

"From start to finish, Majer Recruitment filled me with confidence that they would find me the best possible job I was qualified for, as quickly as possible, and they did.

"The Majer team still keep in close contact with me and even sent me a bunch of flowers when I was officially employed by The Seymour Group," Ms Wilson said.

Winning the title of favourite recruiter has spurred the team at Majer on to continue delivering their exceptional level of service to job seekers and businesses in Brisbane.
